THE BLACK AND GOLD

By Eldon R. Handy

Again the senior ebb-tide leaves its mark Receding, taking ones who now must go Out from our halls wherein they learned to think, It takes the Black and Gold that they love so.

The Black and Gold, their standard-colors-hope They beckon them, as seniors they must go, And with the tide that's going out, they go To fight their way across life's troubled sea.

Through devious means they seek their paths to light, By different roads they scurry from the fold Yet, though they all are drifting far apart They still will love their colors Black and Gold.

Acknowledgement

To our sponsors, Miss Wilson and Mr. Dakin, we the Senior Class of 1924, acknowledge our deep debt of gratitude for their faithful, thoughtful and untiring service. Through deep valleys of depression and great deserts of despair they have led us carefully and cheerfully, keeping a watchful eye on all the pathways to find the smoothest and the most comfortable.

Yes, they have led us, and led us ever upward, always upward toward that highest mountain peak of success toward which we gaze so yearningly. And now as we gaze with enraptured silence upon that glorious sunrise that Life has placed so enticingly before us, as we go forth, prepared to seek new fields of conquest, we linger with their words of encouragement still beating upon our senses and look back longingly as we bid them a fond farewell, and leave with them our best wishes for a bright and happy future.

And so we leave them, our teachers, our sponsors, our friends, and go forth on our path of Life, thanking them in our hearts and with their influence, as writing upon a waxen tablet, indelibly engraved upon our souls.

COREWORD

Midnight oil plus arduous labor have resulted in the publication of this book. How well the problem of pleasing you has been solved is not for us to say. One paramount aim has guided our efforts and that to portray all that pertains to the Anderson High School, its activities and its interests.

If, after long years have passed, this book recalls to your minds and hearts those happy days in A. H. S. this book shall have accomplished its purpose.

INFANCY

In the fall of 1920 the portals of the Senior High School were opened wide to receive the most brilliant class of students that had ever entered that institut.on of knowledge. Our (dignified and austere?) countenances showed that we were, indeed, a precocious class of youngsters, Mildred Gustin was elected our first President. The officers for the second semester were: President, Gordon Sapp; Vice-President, Anna Marie Wedding; Secretary, Mary Cherrington; Treasurer, Albert Barnes; Sergeant-at-Arms, Roy Shettle. Miss Grace Roberts and Mr. Clark Arnold, were elected sponsors.

A wonderful party was given. What a time we had! Velma Bronnenberg gave some touching readings. A horn pipe dance turned out to be a scream. This was our only social event of the year but "it was a grand and ge-lorious feeling" to really take part in the great social activities of our school.

THE AWKWARD STAGE

We fell all over ourselves to get back in school in September 1921, for did we not have many new fields to conquer? We started to work hard so that our reputation as the most intellectual and intelligent ctass in the high school might not suffer. And did it? We'll say not, because we gave the most valuable weiner roast and skating party that was ever staged by a high school organization before or since.

We elected as officers for our second year: President Rosa Blackaby; Vice-President, Albert Arbogast; Secretary and Treasurer, Jane Reed; Sergeant-at-Arms, Sidney Cleveland. Black and Gold were selected as our class colors.

We were sad when the close of the school year separated us from our classmates and our studies, but with eager eyes and happy anticipations we awaited the coming of our Junior year.

THE ACME OF DIGNIT'S

And how proud we were. We began to take a really active part in school activities. Our officers were: President, Harold Kennedy; Vice-President, Josephine Ellison; Secretary, Bernice Crook; Business Manager, Robert Moore; Sergeant-at-Arms, Sidney Cleveland.

We were confronted with the All-American problem, how to make money! After much discussion we decided to present "The Passion Play". Over three hundred dollars pure profit, was realized from this motion picture.

As a Junior Prom was prohibited us, we gave the Seniors a show at the Grand Theatre. George Kelly was in charge of the program. The members of the Junior Class displayed considerable talent. Our Junior year was very successful and we had the "makings" for a real Senior Class.

MEMORIAL

Anyone who has ever worked on our stage knows the delapidated condition which it is in. The stage equipment and facilities were very insufficient and nothing could have been more appropriate than the gift of the graduating class of 1924. We gave our money for the improvement of the stage and for new stage equipment.

There are always several dramatic productions given by various school organizations during each year, and we thought it altogether titting that we should aid such a worthy cause.

"Adam and Eva"

"Adam and Eva" a comedy in three acts written by Guy Bolton and George Middleton, was presented by the Senior Class to the public on February the four-teenth and fifteenth. The show was a complete success.

James King, a wealthy, middle-aged man, was forcefully portrayed by Edward Moore, who never once got "out of character."

Uncle Horace, a funny old man and a dependent upon Mr. King, acted by Metherell Pearce kept the audience laughing whenever he appeared. Pearce's acting was worthy of a professional.

Eva King, the younger daughter of Mr. King, acted by Rheba Pasho, was a most charming young lady. Miss Pasho's acting was of the first water.

Adam Smith, Mr. King's business manager, who loved the simple home life and was disillusioned by the King family, was very realistically played by Joseph Letzkus.

Clarence Handy as Lord Andrew Gordon, a Scotch nobleman, was well adapted to his part.

Julie De Witt, King's elder daughter, was delightfully enacted by Miss Josephine Ellison.

Clinton De Witt, Julie's snobbish, blase husband, was very naturally portrayed by Edward Wellington,

Dr. Jack Delamater, a would-be son-in-law of Mr. King, as acted by Bob Bing was sufficient.

Aunt Abby Rocker, King's sister-in-law as portrayed by Miss Lefern Dennison, handled her lorgnette in an admirable fashion.

Bernice Conrad, as Corinthia, King's parlor maid, was all that a maid should be,

With the direction of Miss Ashbaucher the following boys put on a stunt between acts: Paul Newbern, Bill Steimer, Jack King, Kenneth Ritter, George Morgan, Jim Lantz, Ed, Boram, and George Turner. They sang "That Old Gang of Mine" and "Tumbled-down Shack in Athlone", Balloons were given out as favors to the audience.

The following departments were instrumental in producing the play: Mistress of the Wardrobe, Elene Roseberry assisted by Miss Gore; Master of Properties, Bob Gilpin; Master Electrician, Earling Schleyer assisted by Mr. Dakin; Stage Manager, Arnold Bronnenberg assisted by Mr. Carman and Crook, Art Work by Ralph Rigsby and Paul Massey assisted by Miss Balyeat.

To our sponsors, Miss Wilson and Mr. Dakin, the Seniors were indebted for production of the play. Miss Wilson worked long and faithfully with the cast.

SENIOR CLASS MINISTREL

On May the first and second, the Senior Class presented a Minstrel Show. This show was a "stupendous, extravaganza de luxe." Under the able direction of Hr, Guy Martz and Mr. "Hump" Pierson the cast blossomed forth with much expected and unexpected talent.

George Turner gave some especially good numbers Mr. Gordon Julius did some very elever dancing. Others who had special numbers were: Kenneth Ritter, Alfred Jackson, "Bud" Handy, Paul Newbern, Evelyn Blizard, Ritta Hamilton, Vera Rauch, Martha Huffman and Catherine Higgins.

SKATING PARTY

A skating party was staged by the Seniors on the evening of May the sixth at the Mounds Park skating rink. As a special concession Miss Lewis permitted us to go to the park in machines instead of one special ear. A good time was had by all of those present.

BACCALAUREATE

Baecalaureate services were held on June the first at the Central Christian Church. Reverend Hull gave a very inspiring address,

BREAKFAST PARTY

Oh! it was six o'clock in the morning, and a sleepy but happy bunch of Seniors were eating breakfast out on Bever's farm. That breakfast sure was all that a breakfast should be. The committee in charge was very efficient.

JUNIOR-SENIOR CIRCUS

The Juniors entertained their superiors, the honorable Seniors, June the third with a three ring circus in the gymnasium. The entertainment was greatly appreciated by all who witnessed it.

MOTOR-THEATRE PARTY

On Wednesday morning June 3, the members of the Senior Class started out to Indianapolis on their motor party. The class attended the Murat Theatre.

SWIMMING PARTY

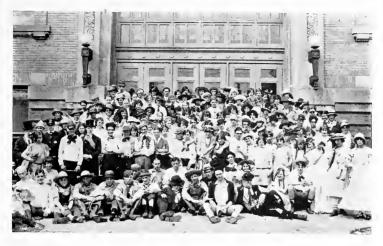

Thursday we had a swimming party at Falls Park. At noon a picnic lunch was served. Much to our surprise we discovered that some members of our class were really ducks, fish or mermaids in disguise.

COMMENCEMENT

On the night of June 6 was graduated from this school the largest class in the history of old A. H. S.

As our speaker we had William D. Saltiel of Chicago. Mr. Saltiel is a very prominent attorney of Chicago. He has no sympathy for anyone who is not interested in the betterment of our government. Mr. Saltiel spoke on "Lectures on Problems of American Life." He has traveled with the Redpath Chatauqua for the last three years.

Immediately after the Commencement exercises we said a sad farewell to our Alma Mater and looked to the future with hope and wonder of what Father Time has in store for us.

Mardi Gras

As usual, the 1924 class of Seniors had to be different and instead of the regular Old Clothes Day and the annual bouquet of onions we had a Mardi Gras. The committee in charge of the program was: George Kelly, chairman; Mildred Gustin, Nora Smith, Pauline Teeters, and Edward Wellington.

A program was given in the auditorium, much to the delight of the under-classmen who are always eager for anything that will keep them out of their classes.

Metherell Pearce was Tempus Fugit and announced the different numbers on the program. Our three visitors from Indianapolis (Eddie Moore, Ed Greenlee and Bob Bing) displayed their charms before the audience. Eddie Moore looked as if he had been in a bomb explosion, while Bob Bing and Ed Greenlee appeared very charming in their feminine apparel.

Martha Huffman, as Helen of Troy, displayed the face that sank a thousand ships. Ritta Hamilton and Evelyn Blizard sang a charming duet "School-days" Paul Whelchel as Nero, played "Yes, We Have No Bananas". George Turner sang his comedy hit "Why Did I Kiss That Girl?" and the audience yelled for more.

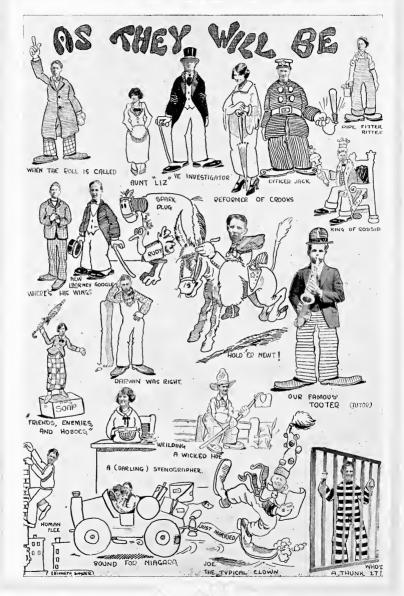

Many other famous characters such as: Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch, Betsy Ross, and Jesse James were seen.

Many scrawny-limbed little girls and boys were to be seen roaming the halls and eating suckers and stick candy. The famous Smith Bros.were here in person and advertised their cough drops as a sure kill or cure for any disease known.

One of the novelties of the day was old Dobbin hitched up to a spring wagon hauling that dignified Senior, Paul Newbern, around town.

The photographer came and took our picture, then we were ordered by Miss Lewis to go to our classes. This order was obeyed by some of the Seniors.

An hilarious time was enjoyed by all of us and we were reminded of the old adage "A little fun is relished by the best of men".

Editorial Comment

Well, what do you think of our book? By the time your eyes chance to rest on this page you have already received an impression and are ready to express your opinion. Of course we hope you like it, but we have no apologies to make, for we feel that we have produced the best Annual possible under existing circumstances and have given the students a book of high calibre which truly reflects the activities and spirit of dear old A. H. S. We have earnestly endeavored to present a true picture of our Alma Mater in all her glory and to record in these few pages the things that will suggest pleasant memories in years to come. We believe that we have accomplished our aim. However, that is not for us, but for you, to determine.

We are indebted to a great many people for assisting in the publication of this book and we desire that everyone who has contributed to this Annual in any way to feel that his efforts were duly appreciated. At times the way was rough and the editor became a bit discouraged thinking that probably it was not worth the effort expended. But due to the splendid cooperation received by the staff from various departments everything has come out in fine shape and we feel rewarded for our many hours of time and energy.

الله والداك ساله والأوساله المواسوات والمورز وليو في الد

To the Art Department is especial credit due for their part in the work. Miss Balyeat has been an invaluable aid to the staff and has worked untiringly in behalf of this year book. She has cooperated with us in a manner that is worthy of praise and has made many helpful suggestions for carrying out the Indian idea through the book. Before any definite plans were made we decided that the Indian would be portrayed from cover to cover in keeping with the Indian legends and Indian spirit sponsored by the followers of A. H. S. The Art Department, under the supervision of Miss Balyeat, has been instrumental in carrying out this original idea.

The artists, themselves, have spent no small amount of time and we desire to thank them for their services. Ed Brodhead spent many hours on plates and inserts and supplied many good ideas. Kenneth Snyder has devoted his school time and also considerable overtime working up snap pages and cartoons. "Kenny" was too bashful to have his picture taken for the staff as was Pauline Reeves, who did some good work on inserts.

FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

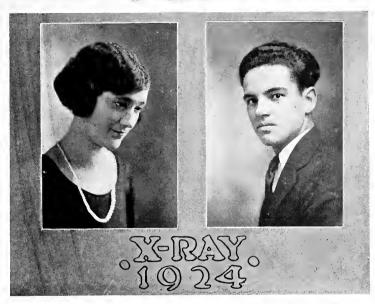

Financially, the X-Ray has had a most successful year. Starting with a deficit of two hundred twelve dollars ($212), we soon overcame that and after paying all expenses for the year have a neat sum of approximately $250 yet in our treasury.

Although we did not issue the full quoto of X-Rays due to existing circumstances, we have so arranged our financial policy and so conducted our affairs, that the X-Ray is left with a neat balance. The new plan of selling the X-Ray and Annual on a cost basis has met with favor in the Anderson Senior High School and elsewhere.

The money taken in during the year was as follows: X-Ray sales, $183.24; Annual sales, $700; advertising—X-Ray and Annual, $943.27; cuts in Annual $314.90;making a total of $2,141.41.

The X-Ray is indebted to the student body for their support during the year and hope that A. H. S. will continue to cooperate with the staff in the future.

ROBERT MOORE-BUSINESS MGR.

The X-Ray has undergone a number of changes during the past year, creditably accomplishing the feat of breaking away from certain unjurious precedents. For years the activities of A, H. S. had heen "in a rut" so to speak. Each year merely meant a repetition of the year before until the class of 1924 came along with the idea of being original and upset the equilibrium of some of the old-timers by changing the scheme of affairs just a little,

The X-Ray has kept in pace in this new movement, in fact it was one of the organizations of A. H. S. that "started the ball rolling." A new policy in regard to Annual sales and X-Ray subscriptions was adopted early in the year. Previous to this the X-Ray had been sold for five cents per copy, the surplus profit going to pay for the annual, for which the students only had to pay thirty-five cents ($.35) but which costs $1.50 in production. According to this plan, X-Ray purchasers were paying for an annual when they were buying the X-Rays, however, many of them did not secure a year book. On the other hand those who purchased four or five annuals but did not buy the X-Ray were not really entitled to the annual X-Ray.

The plan adopted this year in order to make it fair for everyone put both X-Ray and annual for sale on a cost basis. Two cents per copy was charged for the paper and one dollar purchased an annual.

The X-Ray staff feels that they have benefitted the school by this change,

In addition to the regular editions, a tournament extra printed on cherry stock was issued on Feb. 29 during the District tournament and other interesting features including a picture of the team were published.

RECOGNITION

The X-Ray is greatly indebted to the Journalistic and Printing departments this year for the splendid way in which they have cooperated with the staff in securing a creditable annual and a weekly X-Ray which would embody the activities and receho the spirit of A. H. S. Mr Barner, as printing instructor, has devoted his time and effort to the publishing of the year book in a manner that is deserving of praise.

All credit is due the Print Shop this year for the printing of the annual in two colors, a feat which necessitated twice the number of press runs and consequently much more work. This is the first time in the history of Anderson High School that the entire year book has ever been printed in a two color scheme,

Mr. Dakin, as head of the X-Ray and instructor in Journalism, has ever been "on the job" and has kept his corps of news writers hustling after snappy, up-to-date news that would put some life iuto the school paper. Journalism is practically a new venture in A. H. S. having been instituted shortly over a year ago at the instigation of Mr. Dakin.

The News Writing class has replaced the bulk of the X-Ray staff, which has been reduced to seven members this year. This class furnishes an excellent opportunity for students who desire to work for the school paper and at the same time receive credit for their effort.

That the tongue is mightier than the sword, or that arbitration is more effective than hrutal force, probably induced Oswald Ryan to organize the Senate under the supervision of Mr. J. C. Black. It was modeled after the plan of the United States Senate, and as a result of arduous study of parliamentary procedure, has attained the present state.

There are, at present, sixty members enrolled, most of whom enter into the spirit of the various discussions. Among the bills brought up for debate during the season were those concerning: Capital Punishment, Immigration, Repealing the Eighteenth Admendment, and the National Educational Department.

Various parties and banquets were successfully staged during the year, among which are: the Thanksgiving feed, Valentine party, a weiner roast and a skating party. The main social event of the season was the annual banquet.

During the existence of the Senate, various plays and public demonstrations have been given, thus drawing many new members.

Much appreciation and honor is due Mr. J. C. Black, the Sergeant-at-Arms, and Miss Mary Wilson, the English critic, who have guided the Good Ship, Senate, safely through many radical, heated discussions back to the harbor of moderation.

Senate Manual

OFFICERS

Nellie Stottlemyer Editor Leon Harris . . . Business Manager Clarence Peyton . Associate Editor George Kelly Treasurer

Looking to the Past from whence came the precedent, the Senate turned again and revived the custom of publishing a Manual. The last Senate Manual was published in 1919, but the custom having been discontinued until this year, it was a new and untried project for all.

The Senate elected Nellie Stottlemyer as the editor-in-chief, with Ralph Biddle, business manager, who later resigned, and Leon Harris, was elected in his place. Other positions appointed were:—assistant-editor, Clarence Peyton; treasurer, Earling Schleyer and circulation manager, George Kelly.

This staff worked swiftly and silently until the Manual was sent to the publisher. The high school print shop being conjested, the material was sent to the Bulletin Publishing Company, where it progressed rapidly. The manual went on sale for the small price of ten cents, the main expense of outside printing having been covered by advertisements. Almost four hundred copies were sold in Senate and around school, leaving the remainder for ex-senators and alumni.

The Manual, bound in brown imitation leather, contained fifty pages and was so arranged as to interest not only the Senators but also members of the student body as a whole.

Having once been revived, it is hoped that the practice will not be discontinued.

One hundred eight-five dollars was realized from a very creditable performance of "Daddy Long-Legs," which was coached by Miss Gore. Nora Smith, cleverly enacted the role of an orphan, Judy Abbot. The Hi-Y Club assisted in this play and Durward Beall took the part of "Daddy Long-Legs".

Broadcastings From The Programs

A clever program was presented by Rosa Blackaby, as Madam Gazabo, a world renowned crystal gazer, who foretold the future of many G. R.'s.

Two tableaux "The Spirit of '76" and "Clara Barton", were presented. Eva Winslow, Virginia Hudson and Jewel Brandon, were in the former. Nellie Stottler myer sympathetically portrayed the Red Cross Nurse.

The sponsors, Misses, Nagle, Gore, Hartman, Perce, and the cabinet members, Bernice Crook, Nilah Byrum, Jessie Helen and Pautine Bronnenberg, Erma Van Hook, Lyle Southard, Barbara Miller and Mary Cherrington, have donated their untiring efforts to the interest and successful achievements of this organization,

The Anderson Hi-Y Club sponsored by the Y. M. C. A, and the high school principal, was organized three years ago. It was re-organized, a new constitution drawn up, and a different form of admitting new members into the club was introduced last year.

The purpose of the club is "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character." The four fold development plan is carried out through the club, "Clean Speech, Clean Living, Clean Athletics, and Clean Scholarship."

To become a member of the club a candidate has to receive a two-thirds vote of all the members present at the meeting when his name is discussed. Two essential requirements are; a fellow must not use tobacco in any form nor obscene language. Any member refusing to abide by either of these requirements can be dropped from the club by a two thirds vote of those present.

The Hi-Y pin is a sacred pin and is to be worn by the members only. He can not let any girl friend wear it and may only secure one for her providing she will stand for the same ideals and principles as stipulated by the club.

Dramatic Club

OFFICERS

The Dramatic Club, altho apparently inactive, has held some very interesting meetings this year. The attendance has not been large, but those who were there were deeply interested.

A new feature which has developed this year was "A Walking Rehearsal." In this the parts were not committed to memory, but read from printed slips. The main object in this was to give everyone a trial in the club to display his dramatic ability. All the plays were good that were given. The following are the plays which were given: "Two Crooks and a Lady" by Eugene Pillot, coached by Miss Perce. "Spreading the News," an Irish folk play by Lady Gregory, coached by Miss Perce.

All enthusiasm would presumably have been lost if it had not been for the devotion, and untiring efforts of Miss Perce, Miss Gore and Miss Wilson, to the club.

Robert Moore, the new president, was most worthy of his office. When everyone was asking, "What is wrong with the Dramatic Club?" "Bob" showed them what the Dramatic Club could do.

Science Club

OFFICERS

"Variety is the Spice of Life," might well be adopted as a motto for the Science Club. Different in purpose, different in organization, and different to the n th degree, it stands out as something aside from the daily trodden highway of hard, mediocre facts.

Its purpose is to present scientific facts in an interesting manner, and so shed a disclosing light upon heretofore intricate "ologies."

The officers for the first semester were: Metherell Pearce, President; Edna Silverthorne, Vice-President; and Nellie Stottlemyer, Secretary and Treasurer.

After starting out with a bang, the club continued to run on eight cylinders, and thus attracted the attention of the entire school by its new motion picture project. Under this plan, educational pictures were shown on Wednesday mornings, and at various times during the school year, special programs were given. "The Fall of Babylon" and "Cinderella" were presented during the first term, and "The Battle of Gettysburg," to which all the veterans of the Civil War were invited, was shown during the spring semester.

The club is deserving of much praise in that it took over this gigantic problem, and after fitting out and repairing all necessary apparatus, it made a huge success of rendering the student body an instinctive and beneficial service.

Great credit is due Mr. Horton, Science instructor, who has sponsored the club since its origin. His efforts in cooperation with the president, Metherell Pearee, have been responsible for the remarkable success of the club this year:

Student Council

OFFICERS

Nellie Stot.lemyer		. President	Georgiana George . .	Secretary
Mary Cherrington		Vice President	Harlan Colle	Treasurer

The Student Council was organized in 1920. The purpose of this organization is to promote student government and to form a group where the student body shall be represented.

The council decided upon a plan of student government this year. Elections were held to elect the students who were to fill these positions.

A bill was passed to have all the clocks, fountains and any thing around the school that wasn't running right, repaired. This was a good bill because some of the clocks and fountains had been out of use for two or three years.

A few years ago a Clean Up Day was held in the school. The students washed the woodwork, the statuary and the walls around school and cleaned up the lawns. This was a great help to the appearance of the school. This year the Student Council decided to have a Clean Up Day. Everyone participated in this event and again things shown with cleanliness around old A. H. S.

The Council assumed an old debt amounting to about seventy dollars which had been hanging over. A motion picture, "The Lamb", featuring Douglas Fairbanks, was shown to raise money for this purpose. The picture was presented in the high school auditorium May 23.

Mr. J. C. Black, the sponsor of the council has been faithful, patient, and untiring in his efforts to guide the council and the members wish to extend their love and appreciation to him, and hope that he may be able to continue his good work for many more years.

Latin Club

OFFICERS

Irene Sample . . . President Gretchen Miller . . . Secretary
Mary Cherrington . . Vice-President Majoric Richardson . . Treasurer

This organization, for a long time desired by the Latin students, was made a reality last year, under the name of Sodalitas Latina.

The purpose of the club is to create interest in the life and customs of the Roman people. At the meetings many talks have been given concerning the Roman methods of living such as: Roman homes, meals, roads, theatres, and games. There are at present twenty-nine members enrolled in the society.

The programs for the meetings, which are held every other Thursday are arranged by a committee, which the president appoints. The meetings are very interesting and include talks on Roman life, given by members of the club, singing of Latin songs and playing of Latin games. Three special programs were given this year, where refreshments were served. At the October meeting Hallowe'en colors were effectively carried out. There was also a Christmas exchange party. On Valentine day a surprise party was given the club.

The success and advancement of the club in the two year's work are due to the untiring efforts of the sponsor, Miss Fannie Nagle, the officers, and the hearty cooperation of the members.

An interesting feature of the Latin Club was the fact that the menus for refreshments were written in Latin and taxed the wit of the best Latin students to determine what they were really eating. The eats were usually furnished by members of the Club and Miss Nagle but sometimes money was taken from the treasury for this purpose,

French Club

OFFICERS

Durward Beall President Elizabeth Cox Treasurer
Nellie Stottlemyer . Vice-President Mary Phelps Secretary

The French Club is the youngest of all the high school organizations. It was first organized in February of the 1921-22 school year by Miss O'Brian and Miss Bentegeat. Last year there was no French Club.

This year the club was again organized. The first meeting was held at the high school in November. At this meeting the following officers were elected: President, Durward Beall; Vice-President, Nellie Stottlemyer; Secretary, Mary Phelps; Treasurer, Elizabeth Cox. The constitutional committee was also appointed in order that the club might have some set rules to follow.

At the second meeting, two weeks later, the constitution was formally accepted and a social committee was appointed.

This club and the Spanish Club gave a Christmas party together in December. There are twenty-seven members in the French Club. It is rapidly becoming popular and is expected to take its place among the foremost of the school activities before many terms have passed. The club is indebted to Miss Bentegeat for her assistance during the year.

Untold possibilities for expansion and advancement are noticeably evident in the French Club. Members see a roseate future for the Club if the series of social and educational programs now in a nebulous state materialize.

Spanish Club

OFFICERS

Gettrude	Davies			President	Mary	Howell			Secretary
Anna Mar	ie Yates		Vic	e-President	Paul	Newbern			Treasurer

The year 1923-24 has been a busy one for the Spanish Club. Membership committees have worked hard to swell the membership and the meetings have been very interesting.

An event to be long remembered by the Spanish Club members was the big Spanish Club-Commercial Club Hallowe'en party given in the Junior High School Annex. The next notable event was the Spanich Club-Commercial Club theatre party which was enjoyed by a number of students and the sponsors of the two clubs. The Wednesday before Christmas vacation the Spanish Club spent an enjoyable evening with the French Club. The program consisted of music, exchanging of gifts, and the serving of refreshments.

The meetings of the spring semester have consisted in plans for parties and hikes to be held in fine weather, interesting and puzzling contests and talks on Spanish subjects.

The purpose of the Spanish Club has always been to promote interest in Spanish and to give social opportunities to its members. Everyone is eligible who has had one year of Spanish and is making a grade of at least B. The dues are twenty-five cents each semester.

Under the careful supervision of its sponsor, Miss Graham, the club has had a very successful year and it is hoped that next year will find it even more active in school affairs than at present,

OFFICERS

Anna Marie Yates President Doris Kehrer Secretary

Zora Stevens . . . Vice-President Harold Lineherry Treasurer

Two years ago the Commercial Club was organized by a group of commercial students, assisted by Mrs. Williams, head of the Commercial Department, at that time.

The purpose of the club is to promote interest in problems concerning business, and to increase the interest of the students in their commercial work in high school.

There are at present forty members in the club. All students taking the commercial course are eligible to membership and any accdemic student having two of more credits in commercial work is also eligible. Ten cents dues are paid by the members each semester.

This year one of the District shorthand, typewriting, and penmanship contests was held at Anderson. The Commercial Club had charge of the affair. The contests were held in the morning, after which everyone went to the Y. W. C. A. where luncheon was served. In the afternoon a one-act play, "Overtime" was presented by commercial students. After a motion picture comedy the results of the contest were announced.

Several shorthand and typewriting contests were held during the year to enable the students to realize what would be expected of them in an official contest. Many interesting talks by faculty and business men were additional features of the programs,

The club owes a great deal to the efforts of the commercial teachers, Miss Martin and Miss Harris, who have sponsored it.

Orchestra

The orchestra this year has been the largest in the history of the school and has furnished music for many occasions, notably; the Girl Reserves play, "Daddy Long-Legs"; the motion picture, "The Fall of Babylon"; the operetta, "The Fire Prince"; and the Senior Class play, "Adam and Eva". The selections played for these performances have been superior compositions which were well interpreted under the capable leadership of the director, Mr. Wise. Great credit is due him for his able cooperation and direction of the orchestra during 1923-1924.

The personnel of the orchestra is as follows:-

First violin, Everett Swain, Irene Byrum, Edward Moore, Claire Call, Thomas Clem, and Russel Storms,

Second violin, Virgil Quebbeman, Simon Schuster, Vernon Daily, Delilah Hotzel, Rachel Rayl, Gettrude Davies, Alice Merrick, Boehler Smith, Van Pothemus, and Harold Weavel.

Viola, Grace Hulse,

First cornet, Arthur Chenowith, and Robert Shelton.

Second cornet, Horace Rogers, and Blondon Whetstene.

Trombone, Walter Kimball, and Casler Halin,

Saxophone, Robert Moore,

Clarinet, Thelma Schuler, Dean Ambrose, and Margaret Reynolds.

Horns, Etta Kirkendall, and Alden Higgins.

Flute, William McCaslin.

Drum, Harvey Current.

Concert Band

This year we had a new band in our midst. The purpose of this band was to play higher class music and thereby render a service to A, H, S. Mr. Wise did wonderful work for the school by organizing this new band and he deserves much praise for his efforts. There are fifteen members in this organization at present with prospects of increasing the number next year.

The Concert Band played before the school on one occasion and gave one concert before the public. Both performances were greatly appreciated by all who were fortunate enough to hear them. This new musical organization plans to give many concerts next year.

The personnel of the band is as follows:—Cornets, Arthur Chenowith, Blondon Whetstone, Horace Rogers: Clairnets, Dean Ambrose, Thelma Schuler, Margaret Reynolds, Harry Jones; Bass, Donald Feigley; Saxophone, George Morgan, Winburn Pierse; Drums, Paul Newbern, Eldon Handy, Fred Cutler; Trombones, Walter Kimball, Casler Hahn.

The Concert Band has a great future ahead of it. The most of this year was spent in organizing the band and next year it is hoped that it will take a more active part in our school and local activities. This band is something that we have needed for some time and we are sure that next year it will take its rightful place among the formeost of the musical organizations of the school.

The organization of this new band is another mile stone in the annals of A. H. S. in its musical organizations. An orchestra and two bands formed from the group of students who play instruments is quite an achievement and gives A. H. S. high ranking in Indiana high school musical organizations.

"The Fire Prince"

"The Fire Prince", an operetta in two acts, was the annual dramatic production of the Music department this year. With the untiring efforts of Miss Ashbaucher, Director of Music and the dramatic coaching of Misses Niemann and Gore the Glee Clubs and Choruses made the presentations on January 24 and 25 an entire success.

The scene of the story was in Pantouflia. The Crown Prince, Prigio, was a clever young fellow, and was very unpopular because of it.

Everyone in the kingdom, except Prigio and his mother, believed in fairies. A great heat scourge fell upon the land, which was said to be caused by a Firedrake. The Firedrake was a mythilogical reptile that was supposed to breathe flames.

It was Prigio's place to fight this creature, but he wesn't superstitious and he didn't believe there was a Firedrake. His two brothers fought the reptile and were killed by it. The King disinherited Prigio and moved the court to Falkenstein. Prigio was left alone.

Prigio had met and fallen in love with Rosa, the Spanish Ambassador's daughter.

The fairies had left Prigio some magic gifts at his birth, and he now decided to try out these gifts.

His seven league boots took him to Falkenstein and here he remained undiscovered by means of his magic cap.

Prigio made himself known to Rosa She expressed a desire for the horns and tail of the Firedrake and Prigio went immediately to fight it. Prigio killed the Firedrake and brought its horns and tail to Rosa. He restored his brothers to life by magic and he received the King's pardon.

Rosa and Prigio were married and as the fairy tale goes: lived happily ever after,

Prigio, the Fire Prince, was very realistic as portrayed by George Turner.

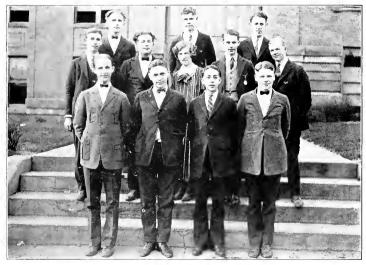

The part of Rosa, was very ably done by Miss Georgiana George.

Kenneth Ritter was well adapted to his part as the King, and Paul Newbern as the Butler was never once out of character.

Eleanor Champlin did some very artistic and graceful dances.

Athletic Board

The season just closed has been one of the best in athletics that A. H. S. has witnessed in several years. Only through the untiring efforts of the Athletic Board and cooperation of the student body has this success been obtained.

The Athletic Board is the guiding hand of all athletic activities in A, H. S. During the past season it has again brought football back into the athletic realms of A. H. S. after an absence of almost twenty years. The Athletic Board's biggest aim has been to promote cleaner and better sportsmanship in A. H. S. athletics. It is striving bard to procure a better class spirit by fostering a Track and Field meet each year at the close of the school term. The first meet of this kind was held last year and a silver loving cup was awarded the Freshman Class for winning first honors.

Now that the precedent of holding inter-class track meets has been established, it is hoped that this new venture sponsored by the Athletic Board and School athletic officials will continue to receive the unbounded support and enthusiasm of the students of A, H, S. The first meet held last year at the Athletic Park was a complete success.

Anderson is known for its true sportsmanship and will strive harder each year to obtain further heights.

The officers for the past year were:—Paul Newbern, Pres.; Earl Schmidt, Vice-Pres.; Harold Jones, Sec. The Faculty members were Mr. Brinson, Mr. Cook, Mr. Sharpe and Mr. Maier.

Basketball

The 1923-24 basketball season has been the most successful A. H. S. has witnessed for several years. Coach Staggs had but four men left from last year with which to build this year's team. In the past years Anderson has had only one team which was its superior such as Franklin and Vincennes but this year A. H. S. lead the field according to the sport writers of many Indiana papers. Anderson defeated every team she met at least once during the season. The standard of sportsmanship attained by the fans helped the team to achieve an enviable record.

Although A. H. S. loses five members of the team by graduation the prospects for a winning team next year are very bright.

DISTRICT

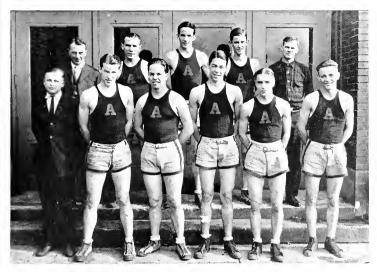

The district tournament held in the A. H. S. gym on February 29 and March 1 was a success with many good games on the schedule. Ten teams of this district were represented, namely, Pendleton, Summitville, Lapel, Markleville, Elwood, Frankton, Windfall, Tipton, Alexandria and Anderson. The outcome was never in doubt but the contest proved thrilling in the extreme in many instances. Anderson met Lapel in their first game, then Pendleton, and Alexandria and lastly, defeated Elwood in the final game on Saturday night.

BEGIONAL and STATE

Anderson had easy going in the regional meet held at Earlham College, Richmond, March 7 and 8, Anderson's two opponents were Stoney Creek and Mt. Comfort and the scores were as follows: Anderson 45, Stoney Creek 14; Anderson 28, Mt. Comfort 12.

The State contest was heart breaking. Anderson went to the State in high hopes and not without reason. She was judøed by leading sport critics as the best team in the state and was given first in many big ten lists. Consequently when she was defeated, she fell hard, although the old Indian spirit never was lacking and although she was defeated in basketball, she was victorious in spirit.

In the initial game of Anderson's scheduled round at Indianapolis the fighting Indians met defeat at the hands of the Bedford five. 35-24 on Friday afternoon, March 14. Iniuries which our team were nursing at the time was attributed by many as the cause for our defeat. However, cuoting Staggs, "We do not offer alibies." The score savs we were defeated and that is all there is to the story, but that famous, never-dying spirit lives on and will continue to live. Next year will find the Anderson High School basketball team maintaining that same fight and loyalty to A. H. S. We, the class of 1924, wish our Alma Mater the best of success is this field of athletics and pledge our everlasting support to the Red and Green.

FIRST TEAM

SECOND TEAM

ALFRED JACKSON

"Jack"

"Jack" has been one of Coach Staggs' main stays, for four years and his loss will be greatly felt when the call for basketball candidates is made next year.

EVERETT CAMPBELL

"Camel"

Campbell was another of Coach Staggs' diminntive forwards but his eye for the basket could not be excelled. He could always be depended upon.

CHESSEL GIBSON

"Chet"

Chet was the "sheik" of the team and a regular lady fusser. "Chet" was the smallest member of the team but his playing sure did count. This is "Chet's" last year.

MAURICE STARR

"Starrie"

Starr is the boy that always seems to be taking things easy. He is a hard fighter and never stops until the last whistle. This is Starr's first year,

HARRY STONE

"Stonie"

"Stonie" is that guard that everyone admifes. He was unable to enter the fray the first semester but when he did he made up for lost time.

Cheer Leader

Adams is the young fellow that made many hearts flutter at the State meet when he shot in two long field goals in the Bedford game. He has one more year.

"Butch"

"Butch" is one of Staggs' "scrappers" that will be back to uphold A. H. S. laurels again next year. He has been one of the main stays of the team for the past three years and great things are expected of him next year.

EARL MAHAN

This was Earl's first year to play with the first team and when he got into action he showed the real fight and spirit of an A. H. S. warrior. This is his last year.

JOHN CHILDES

"Johnnie"

Though small "Johnnie" was a fighter and made up for his diminutive height. This was his first year to play with the team and he showed up well. John leaves us this year.

GEORGE WILLIAMS

"Squeak"

George is the tall boy who is always smiling and was one of Staggs' most consistent players. He could play forward when it was necessary but his position was center.

Asst. Coach

Track

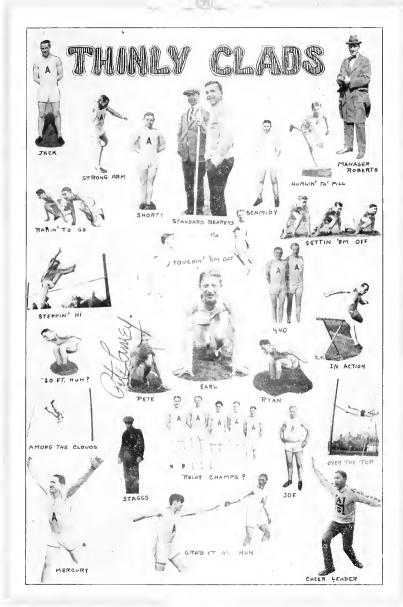

Track is becoming more popular in A. H. S. each season and it is hoped that in a few years track will have as big a following of fans as basketball now has. The largest crowd that ever witnessed a track meet in Anderson turned out at the opening of the season when A. H. S. and Elwood held a most interesting dual meet.

Heretofore track has not paid for itself but it is gradually coming into its own. For the last three years A. H. S. has had a most successful team, having lost but two dual meets in the three years. Anderson has sent representatives to the State meet for a number of years but as yet she has never won a State contest. This year Roy Shettle, low hurdler, Alfred Jackson, quarter miler, and Earl Mahan. Russell Bowers, Warren Carpenter, and Charles Anderson, mile relay men represented A. H. S. at the State meet which was held at Tech, of Indianapolis.

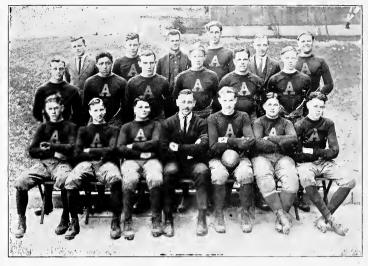

Coach Staggs experienced much difficulty in developing a team this year as graduation reaped the cream of last year's team. A number of the team members this year are freshmen and it is evident that a winning team will be turned out again next year.

The question of having a suitable place to stage track meets, since the new gymnasium being erected west of the school does away with our former field, has been worrying track enthusiasts some. Anderson expects to have a winning bunch of thinly clads next year and consequently will make the necessary provisions for an athletic field.

A complete schedule of meets for next year has not been made but several thrilling contests may be promised for those loyal fans who always support Anderson High School. Athletic officials have been very well pleased with the cooperation and support of the student body to the track team this year and urge them to continue to be true to the Red and Green thinly clads and help boost track as a live institution of A, H, S,

Football

COACH

Football was again ushered into A, H. S, when Mr, Carman, head coach, made a call for candidates on the first day of school. Forty-five candidates responded to the call and the process of whipping a team into shape was put underway. Only a few of the boys knew the fundamentals of the game so it was a hard grind from the start to the finish.

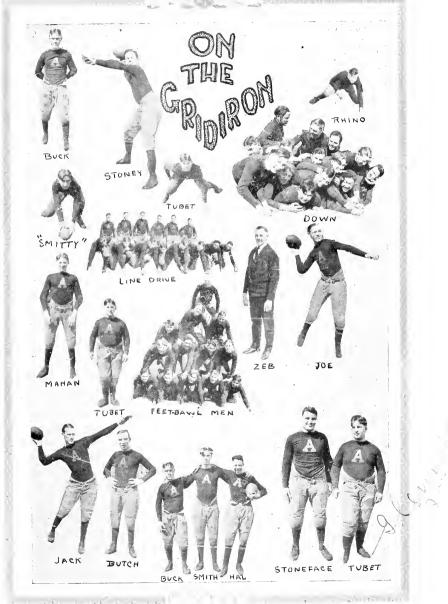

Much credit must be given Coach Carman for the untiring effort he put forth in teaching the boys form, From 3:45 until after dark the thud of the pigskin could be heard at Athletic Park.

Owing to the fact that the team was formed from green material the season may be considered a success. A schedule of six games was played during the season A. H. S. won one, tied two, and lost three.

Coach Carman is holding spring practise and it is evident that a much better team will represent A. H. S. next fall.

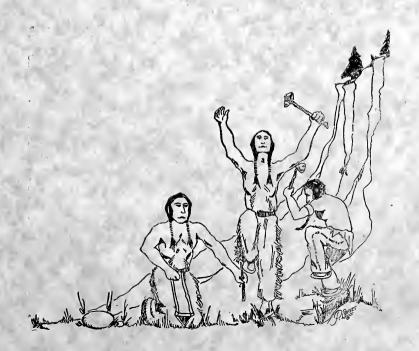

The re-establishing of football as an institution in A. H. S. is of great interest historically. Before the last season, Anderson had not been represented by a football team for more than fifteen years. Due to an accident which resulted in the death of one of the players, this field of athletics was dropped and probably would never have been replaced had it not been for the favorable vote taken by the student body. Only a few minor injuries were received by the boys this year and with more experience accidents will be eliminated almost entirely.

PAGE MR. WEBSTER

Last summer two travellers were in a train going to Chicago. As the train drew up at a station one of the travellers opened the window, and, drawing a deep draught of fresh air, turned to his companion and exclainted:

"Isn't this salubrious?"

"Yes," replied his friend, "I think it is exhilarating."

"Beg pardon," chimed in the conductor, "ye're both wrong; it's Kalamazoo."

INNOCENT!

Judge—"Did you, or did you not, strangle this man to death?"

Robert Gilpin—"Not guilty, your honor. In the scuffle he cut himself on the chin, and I wrapped a torniquet around his throat to keep him from bleeding to death."

"Love makes the heart light", observed Bernice Crook.

"And the parlor dark," added "Bus" Bronnenberg.

Mrs. E.—"Didn't I see you-sitting on that young man's lap last night?"

"Jo" E.—"Well, you told me that if he tried to get sentimental, I must sit on him."

DAMAGED

Rus. Forkner tells about a tin roof of a Kansas store that was torn off and rolled into a compact bundle by a cyclone. Having a sense of humor, the owner wrapt a few strands of baling wire around the ruin and shipped it to Henry Ford. In due time came a communication saying:

"It will cost you $48.50 to have your car repaired. For heaven's sake, tell us what hit you!"

An English tourist in Colorado was blown from the wagon seat by a tremendons gust of wind that swooped down through the caryon. Picking himself up and brushing the dust from his clothes he remarked, "Do you know, I rather think you overdo the ventilation in this country."

THE UNKINDEST CUT

Ed Boram—(finding a piece of rubber in his hash)—"There's no doubt about it the auto is displacing the horse everywhere."

Mother—"So you've been fighting again. Can't you remember always to turn the other cheek?"

Bobby—"That's all right, but Timmy Dolan smacked me one on the nose."

SOME THINGS I WOULD LIKE TO SEE IN THE MOVIES

Cecil B. DeMille produce his version of "Uncl. Tom's Cabin" without importing five hundred dancing girls from Burma, two heat loads of elephants, twenty-four erocodiles and ninety-four Paris gowns for the star.

A Mack Sennet comedy where the comedians do not wear false moustaches, are not always falling over and do not chase each other over roof-tops and through revolving doors.

A play without subtitles for the witty ones to make puns on for those less favored with such precocious intelligence.

An Educational comedy without a chimpanzee, a goose, a trained ostrich or mudturtle and a baby kidnapped, baby preoccupied with an all-day sucker or its s'icky fingers.

A debutante party which is not an Oriental orgy or one in which the fair ladies indulge in champagne baths and mock marriages,

Mr. Black—Jack, I believe your face is not clean.

Jack K.—Aw, that girl I just tried to flirt with gave me a dirty look.

SMALL SPORT

"Come on," said the first flea, as he hopped from the brown bear's left foreleg, "come over and join me at a short game of golf."

"Golf!" exclaimed the second flea, hastily taking a bite of hyena, "where in the realm of Barnum are we going to play golf?"

"Why," said the first flea, "over on the lynx, of course."

A worried mother living in the East Side of New York wrote to her boy's teacher as follows: "Please do not push Tommy too hard so much of his brain is intelleck that he ought to be held back a good deal or he will run to intelleck entirely, and I do not desire it. So please hold him back so as to keep his intelleck from getting bigger than his body and injuring him for life."

Imagine getting home from a date with a girl in Alaska where the nights are six months long.

Consider the fish . . . If he didn't open his mouth, he wouldn't get caught.

ECONOMIC INFORMATION

A teacher in one of the grammar-school grades was telling her class the story of how our money is made. Holding up a two-dolar hill, she dwelt at length on the many things which were engraved upon its crisp surface.

"What does this '2B' stand for?" she asked Jimmy, who had been an attentive listener.

"Two bucks," was the ready answer.

ANOTHER ANIMAL STORY

It was at the dog show and Evelyn Blizard was examining a dachshund, to which she had taken a fancy. She turned to the owner, who was trying to sell the dog and said: "Cute little thing, isn't he? But before I buy him, tell me, is there anything the matter with him?"

The owner hesitated a moment and then answered: "Well, ma'am, I'll tell you. He's really got two flaws."

"Dear me!" said Evelyn in a surprised voice, "two floahs! Why, he looks more like a bungalow."

"An old man," replied "Jim" Robinson.

What Would Life Be Without Loyalty?

OYALTY is the finest fibre in the human breast—it awards alike the humble and the great—makes the small man big and the big man bigger.

Take LOYALTY from the heart of a saint and you have the likeness of a devil.

The greatest thing in life is man's loyality to man—that heart quality of true manhood—that innate stamp of fair play which prompts us to hand out the square deal instead of the double cross.

Let us congratulate you graduates of the Senior Class, and may our wish be that your pathway will be strewn with life's sweetest roses and that success be attained.

DUMB!

Rheba P. (on trolley car)—"Which end of the car do 1 get off at?"

Polite Conductor—"Either end, ma'am; both ends stop."

A LONG SHOT

She approached the stairtop, And looking down the hall, She spied a pair of burglars Who were cleaning out her all.

She glanced at her revolver,
And much to her dismay,
She found one lonely bullet
That must put them both away.

With fear the dame was stricken, But was far too game to run, So she stole a look at father's clock, The hour 'proacheth one.

And so she knew her wealth was saved, With only one she'd bother.

She'd wait until the clock struck one, And then she'd shoot the other.

Somebody told us the other day that if we wanted to pull off something big we might try our shoes.

Cap B.—"No; but he hasn't any money in the bank."

One day in school the teacher said: "Micky, give me a definition of salt."

"Shure," Micky responded; "it's the stuff that makes potatoes taste bad when you boil 'em and don't put any in."

THE CROWNING INSULT

"Did you get your money?" asked the wife of the dentist who had called to collect an account.

"Not a cent," growled the dentist, "and worse than that, he insulted me, and gnashed my teeth at me!"

A doctor's report would probably come under the head of the news of the weak.

Maurice Starr (fumbling through pockets)—"I'm afraid I've lost my ticket."

Irate Conductor—"What do you mean, lost it? You couldn't lose a ticket a yard long"

Guy Ross—"Charley, did you hear that joke about the Egyptian guide who showed some tourists two skulls of Cleopatra—one as a girl and one as a woman?"

Chas. H-"No; let's hear it,"

A school teacher was trying to make a class understand what a volcano is like. In reviewing the lesson she drew on the blackboard her own conception of a flaming mountain, using colored crayon with extraodinary effect.

"What is it?" she asked. The scholars shook their puzzled heads. "What does it look like?" she pursued.

A small boy soberly answered "It looks like hell, ma'am."

DAMP DRY

Young Hopeful (who has been bathing with his bigger brother) —"Willie dropped the towel in the water and he's dried me wetter than I was before."

Vernet Turner is so dumb that he thinks, "The Hunchback of Notre Dame" is a football picture,

Who made you fall, then let you lay? Your girl.

Then taunted you with laughter gay? Your girl.

And who came with you to the prom, And flirted with your chum, Tom, Then petted him while you were gone?

Your girl. Who broke your heart with words untrue? Your girl.

And also broke your bank roll, too? Your girl,

With sweetest words that e'er were penned

What girl at last will prove your friend, Aud stick right with you to the end? Your sister.
